Small Business Advocate nominees sought

The National Small Business Association is seeking nominations for its 2007 Small Business Advocate of the Year.

The winner will be announced in May.

Applicants must demonstrate a commitment to small business advocacy, a proven history of voluntary efforts and endeavors to advance small business and improve the conditions of small business owners, success and growth as a small business owner, and any other accomplishments demonstrating merit as an effective advocate for small business interests.

Nominations should be sent to Rob. Yunch, Small Business Advocate of the Year Award, National Small Business Association, 1156 15th St. NW, Suite 1100, Washington, D.C. 20005-1755. An application form is available at nsba.biz/award.

The deadline for submissions is Jan. 19.
